

Walayar Range

North: From the point where the eastern boundary of Chenat Nair reserve forests meets the taluk boundary of Palakkad Taluk, the boundary runs through the taluk boundary of Palakkad Taluk towards east till it meets the inter-state boundary between Kerala and Tamilnadu.

East: Thence along with the inter-state boundary up to the point where the Taluk boundary of Palakkad and Chittur Taluk meets the interstate boundary.

South: The boundary then passes along the Taluk boundary towards South West till it reaches the point where Palakkad- Pollachi road crosses the boundary of Palakkad Taluk.

West: From the above said point the boundary passes through Pollachi-Palakkad road up to Kuttupatha junction thence through the National Highway up to bypass point. Thence through Kalmandapam, Sulthanpet, Government Victoria College, Puthiyapalam, Olavakkode, Dhoni, Dhoni forest gate and thence through the boundary of Chenat Nair Reserved Forest till reaches the starting point.

Certified that the above boundary description has been compared with the original Govt order and found correct.
